Once again police suicides have outnumbered line-of-duty deaths in the U.S. and the trend does not seem to be slowing. For too long officers have had to deal with the stigma of being tough and holding it in until they can no longer cope. These brave warriors protect our communities and deserve our help to cope with these issues they face on a daily basis.

Come out and join the Harris County Sheriff's Office in bringing public awareness to this epidemic of rising police suicides, and help us raise money for the nonprofit CopLine organization in their efforts to provide this vital support. CopLine is a 24/7 anonymous hotline dedicated to providing peer support by retired police officers. These retired officers are trained in Active Listening and bring experience and knowledge in understanding the job stressors suffered by police officers.

All proceeds from registrations will go directly to CopLine in efforts of growing their operation to continue this crucial life-saving service to our men and women in blue.
